Menace of beggars in Delhi

46. SHRI RAJU PARMAR:

SHRI BHAGATRAM MANHAR:

Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Governments' attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned "Beggars, thieves crowed city subway" which appeared in the Asian Age, New Delhi dated 18th June 2002;

(b) if so, the reaction of Government thereto;

(c) whether begging in Delhi has become a nuisance and is thriving round for miscreants and beggars using subways, intersections and other prominent sports for the purpose of begging; and

(d) if so, the steps Government have planned to curb this nuisance permanently by imposing leavy penalties on beggars?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHR SATYABRATA MOOKHERJEE) : (a) Yes Sir.

(b) to (d) Government is aware that beggars throng places like intersections and other prominent places for begging. The Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959 has been extended to NCT of Delhi. The Delhi Police has been authorised apprehending beggars at public places. The Act provides for detention of a beggar who is convicted for the first time for not less than 2 years and not more than 3 years. For second and subsequent convictions, the Special Court, constituted under the Act for this purpose, can order detention upto a period of 10 years.
